NATURE'S FIRST GREEN IS GOLD,
HER HARDEST HUE TO HOLD,
HER EARLY LEAF'S A FLOWER;
BUT ONLY SO AN HOUR.
THEN LEAF SUBSIDES TO LEAF.
SO EDEN SANK TO GRIEF,
SO DAWN GOES DOWN TO DAY.
NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY.

DAY ONE – The Kentucky Horse Park

Our adventure begins in Lexington at the famed Kentucky Horse Park. Discover 55 million years of equine history at the International Museum of the Horse, visit the Hall of Champions, and meet some of the horses that call the Park home. Tonight, we enjoy a Welcome Dinner at the Park hosted by your Tour Manager. Dinner

DAY TWO – Lexington to Columbia

Depart the Bluegrass State of Kentucky this morning and travel through the Volunteer State of Tennessee as we continue to South Carolina's state capital, Columbia. Breakfast

DAY THREE – Savannah Trolley Tour

Today we arrive in Savannah, Georgia, the city that General William T. Sherman deemed “too beautiful to burn” at the end of his historic “march to the sea” during the later stages of the Civil War. Here, we enjoy some free time along the city's busy River Street before we climb aboard a trolley for a narrated tour of this picturesque city. Learn of Savannah's intriguing history and be captivated by her natural beauty and eccentric charm. Later, we continue on to Beaufort, located at the heart of the Sea Islands. Tonight, dinner is on Lady's Island at Barbara Jean's Restaurant, a locally grown, family-run institution whose crab cakes have been called “the best” by Southern Living Magazine. Breakfast and dinner

DAY FOUR – Beaufort and The Sea Islands

This morning we “island hop” to St. Helena Island, rich in Gullah history and culture. At Penn Center Museum, we will learn the importance of the Gullah people who settled the area before crossing to Hunting Island. Named one of America's Top Ten Beaches, Hunting Island State Park, is South Carolina's most-visited state park and features miles of clean, safe beach along the Atlantic and an historic lighthouse which was built in 1873. In the afternoon we board a horse drawn carriage for a narrated tour of Beaufort. Located on Port Royal Island, one of the largest Sea Islands, Beaufort is one of only a handful of towns in the nation that has had its entire downtown designated an historic district by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Occupied by Union troops during the Civil War, Beaufort is filled with more than 50 historic structures, many of which are lovely private antebellum homes which have been beautifully restored.

DAY FIVE – The Charm of Charleston

Today we travel north to Charleston. Widely regarded as one of the most beautiful and historic cities in America, Charleston's delightful southern breezes and cobblestone streets pave the way to gracious living and warm hospitality. Through the stories of those who founded Charleston, our local guide makes history come alive along these antebellum home-lined streets. See the Old Market and Exchange and the famous "Battery at the Harbor," which overlooks Fort Sumter. It was here, in April of 1861, that the first shot of the Civil War was fired. After lunch on your own, we pay a visit to Boone Hall Plantation and Gardens, one of America's oldest working, living plantations and has been continuously growing and producing crops for over 320 years. Visit the elegant plantation home, stroll the historic gardens and envision plantation life at the turn of the century. Breakfast and dinner

DAY SIX – Travel to Pigeon Forge

After breakfast we depart South Carolina's beautiful Atlantic coast and begin the journey home. We travel into Tennessee to the Smoky Mountains entertainment capital of Pigeon Forge, our home for the next two nights. Breakfast

DAY SEVEN – Great Smoky Mountains National Park and Hatfield & McCoy Dinner Show

This morning we spend time immersed in the breathtaking beauty of the Smoky Mountains. The Great Smoky Mountains National Park preserves the rich cultural tapestry of Southern Appalachian history. The park strives to protect the historic structures, which consists of one of the best collections of log buildings in the eastern U.S., along with the landscapes and artifacts that tell the varied stories of people who once called these mountains home. Then, it's off to Gatlinburg to experience the history, beauty and nostalgia of the small town nestled in the Smoky Mountains.

Hatfield and McCoy Dinner Show

There are many galleries, unique craft shops and restaurants throughout the town as well as the Ole Smoky Moonshine Distillery. For generations Tennessee moonshiners have been making their product in the backwoods, but now Ole Smoky brings this unique whiskey into the light. Stop in to see the distilling process and try a sip in the tasting room. Tonight we are treated to an evening of great food and fun Tennessee entertainment at the Hatfield & McCoy Dinner Show. We arrive just in time for a big ole barn dance to find that someone invited both the Hatfields and the McCoy's! Since these folks are not the best of friends, we'll have to see how the newly elected sheriff is gonna fare over the next few hours. With the help of Granny and her down-home cooking, these feuding folks will be too darn full to do anything but sit back and entertain us with their toe-tappin' brand of music. What better way to end our holiday but with family.

In Charleston a guided tour along the cobblestone streets lined with antebellum homes brings history alive. Later, we board our ship, the Carnival Fantasy where we enjoy our first dinner on board. Breakfast and dinner

Although the island’s capital city Freeport/Lucaya is well known for its gaming, night-time entertainment and world-class duty-free shopping, outside the city is an entire island filled with gorgeous beaches, natural wonders, including one of the world’s largest underwater cave systems, three national parks and an incredible resource of marine life. There are small towns that seem to sleep in time, which hide a history unlike any other in the Caribbean. All meals on board

This program has certain exclusions. Mayflower Tours reserves the right to alter its Refund and Cancellation Policy when a substantial amount of cancellation or postponement of travel is attributable to: conditions resulting from an act of God, natural or man-made disaster, fire, government action, civil disorder, war, hostilities between nations, or unavailability of transportation through no fault of Mayflower Tours.

"Freedom to Travel" Guarantee - On those rare occasions when the Exclusions mentioned above make it necessary to modify its Refund and Cancellation Policy, Mayflower's "Freedom To Travel" Guarantee will take effect for those passengers who purchased the Cancellation Fee Waiver. This Guarantee will allow travelers to apply all monies paid to Mayflower Tours, including the Cancellation Fee Waiver, toward any future Mayflower tour that departs within 12 months of their notification.

Cancellation Fee Waiver (CFW) is not an insurance. It is a self-funded refund and waiver program for cancellations and early departures from tour programs, and contains various exclusions. If actual insurance coverage is desired for occurrences such as travel delay; lost, stolen or damaged luggage; medical and emergency medical transportation; supplier default; or related services, then it is strongly recommended that a traveler contact a travel insurance company. It is also recommended if a traveler desires a trip cancellation refund program not funded by Mayflower Tours, that a travel insurance company be contacted. One firm offering some or all of these services is MH Ross Travel Insurance Plan (1-800-423-3632).
