DAY 5 Koblenz: Arrive in the 2000-year-old town of Koblenz, an ancient city that looks as though it has been pulled from the pages of a German fairytale. Enjoy a picturesque backdrop of snow-topped mountain ranges as your local guide takes you on a walk through open cobbled squares and along narrow streets. Your tour will include the German Corner at the confluence of the Rhine and Moselle rivers. In the city center you'll find festive, cottage-style stalls of the Christmas market and Lebkuchenherzen (traditional gingerbread hearts) to create a magical European Christmas experience. This afternoon, cruise along the Rhine River and be sure to have your camera's ready as you cruise through the UNESCO World Heritage Rhine Gorge. Countless medieval castles, perched atop hills, line this section of the river with photo opportunities around every bend. See the infamous Lorelei statue and hear of her legend. Meals: B, L, D
